

5 Apps You Need to Download Before Going on Holiday

1. City Mapper

City Mapper is perfect for making your way around a city that you are unfamiliar with. The app covers 39 cities across the world ranging from Madrid to Tokyo, the cities available are always growing. For a full list of cities visit: <https://citymapper.com/cities>.

All you have to do is enter your destination and City Mapper will show you how to get there, and which route is the quickest. Whether it be by public transport, cycling or walking.

Example of City Mapper in action. The app suggested to use the metro to get from A to B. It clearly shows how to get to the destination and how long it will take.

3. Skyscanner

Make sure you are getting the best value flight possible with Skyscanner. Just enter your holiday destination and where you want to fly from, and the app will compare a range of flights from a variety of airlines.

Skyscanner also allows you to compare prices on hotels and car hire, making sure you get the best deals when you go abroad!

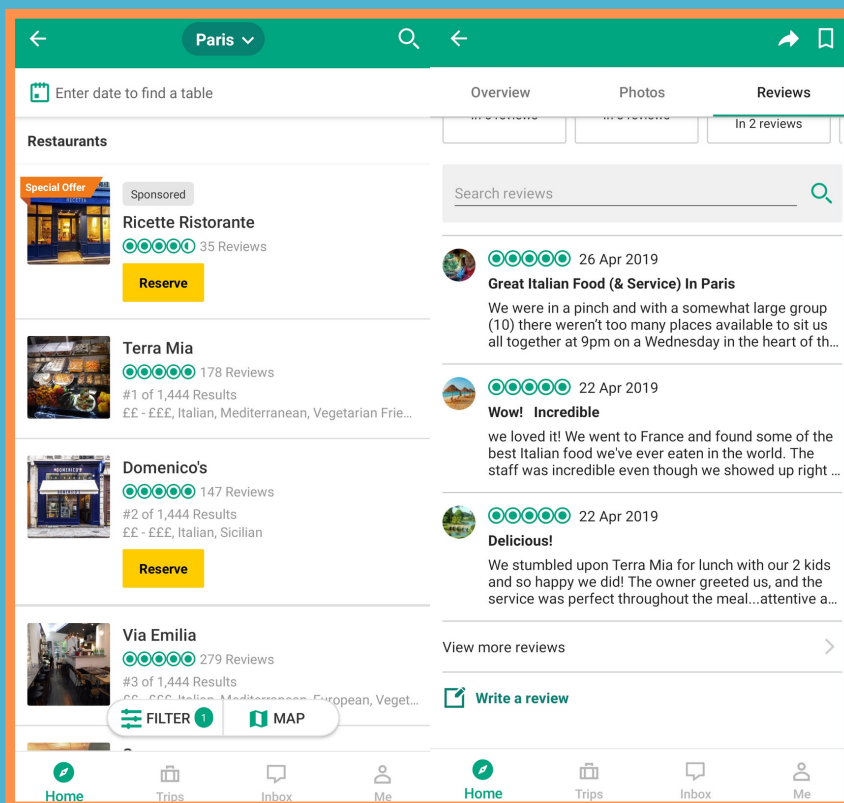

Here we searched for flights to Orlando from Manchester. Skyscanner displayed 1129 results, with the cheapest option at the top. Saving time, as now we don't have to go on each of the airlines websites looking for prices.

4. TripAdvisor

When on holiday you want to watch the best entertainment, eat the best food and stay at a nice hotel. With TripAdvisor you can see the reviews and opinions of thousands of people who have previously visited the bar, restaurant ect... that you may be interested in visiting.

If you see that a place has good reviews your mind will be at ease, ensuring you have the best time possible on holiday!

We have searched for Italian food in Paris and it has displayed 1,444 results. Each result is ranked from best to worst.

We tapped 'Terra Mia' as it has the best reviews. TripAdvisor then displayed many reviews of the restaurant and other useful information such as phone number.

5. WhatsApp

We recommend using WhatsApp to contact people when you are abroad. When you are connected to a WiFi Hotspot, messaging people on the application will be completely free. You can even send people back home pictures of you on the beach sipping your favourite cocktail at no cost, when connected to WiFi.

WhatsApp isn't limited to just messaging, you can now call people using the app. Just make sure your family and friends back home have WhatsApp set up before you jet off!

If you are in the EU, WhatsApp can be used with your existing UK data allowance, if travelling outside the EU we recommend connecting to a WiFi hotspot before using the app.
